CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

GROUND FORCE TOTZ: This fun class is for all those busy toddlers out there ready to get their dance on! Full of vibrancy and interaction where toddlers learn to dance, connect with peers, sing, and have an overall enjoyable experience. Through age-appropriate movements and music, toddlers are introduced to basic dance steps, encouraging creativity and self-expression. Group activities and games foster social interaction, helping toddlers build connections with each other. Simple, catchy songs are incorporated to make the class enjoyable and promote language development. The emphasis is on creating a positive and engaging atmosphere that encourages both individual expression and social interaction among toddlers. This class requires one parent to be present and join in with their toddler.

BALLERINA BABEZ: This class is for little dancers beginning their dance experience discovering the foundations of technique in Ballet & Jazz. The class incorporates creative elements to make the experience as fun and engaging as possible for little dancers, such as storytelling through dance, colourful props, and imaginative themes. Basic ballet and jazz techniques are introduced through playful activities, ensuring that young dancers develop fundamental skills while enjoying the process. The class may include games, rhythmic exercises, and music that captivate their attention, fostering a love for dance in a light-hearted atmosphere.

GF BOYZ: This class is for young boys who are ready to break a sweat and show off their unique dance style! This class will encourage young boys to embrace their individuality and explore self-expression through movement, subsequently enhancing their creativity, confidence, and coordination in a fun and supportive environment. Dancers will draw inspiration from famous male dancers, learning iconic moves and styles that reflect strength, swagger, and fluidity, while also developing their own personal groove. Get ready for a class packed with energy, creativity, and plenty of fun!

LYRICAL: This class explores a fusion of jazz and ballet techniques, seamlessly blended with contemporary foundations. Dancers will learn the grace and poise of ballet, the fluidity of jazz movements, and the expressive freedom of contemporary dance. The class focuses on storytelling through movement, encouraging students to convey emotions and narratives through their dance. This unique combination provides a dynamic and expressive experience that merges traditional and modern elements, allowing dancers to cultivate both technical skill and artistic expression.

HIP HOP MINIZ: This class is for those little groovers ready to get their Hip Hop dancing shoes on!
